

in my life that this is my testimony to the world" About an hour before the end came, she asked for the hymn which contains the following lines.

"I have a treasure which I prize It's like I cannot find There's nothing like it on the earth It's this - a quiet mind

"My Saviour's death and risen life
To find it were designed His love the wood-falling spring
Of this my quiet mind

"The love of God within my breast
My heart to him doth bind
This is the peace of Heaven on earth
This is my quiet mind

"I'm waiting now to see my Lord
So patient and so kind I want to thank him face to face
For this, my quiet mind"

At the conclusion she said: "He knows I have a quiet mind, and then added, "Lie down, and let us rest", which were the last words she spoke - And so with mind untroubled to the last, surrounded by her own loved ones, her earthly life, which had known so much of suffering, closed in the perfect peace of the presence of her Lord - Much that she said is left unrecorded, but those who were with her will never forget the wonderful assurance she gave of the reality of the faith of Jesus Christ -

May those who are left behind receive and bear to others, that which she felt to be her message to the world - The unchangeableness of God as revealed in Jesus Christ - and "God is Love" - and may we heed her exhortation and "tell everyone" - The meeting then ^{session} ~~met in~~ ^{separated}
The Committee appointed to attend the marriage of Isaac Braichwaite and Mary Snowden Thomas reported that they were all present at said marriage, that the same was orderly conducted and that the Certificate was properly signed and attested and has been lodged with the