

Our clerks were directed to furnish him with a copy of this Minute and sign it on our behalf.

The committee appointed in 4th Month last to prepare a draft of a Memorial of our late beloved friend Francis T. King presented the following which was read and accepted and our clerks were directed to forward a copy of the same to Baltimore Quarterly Meeting.

Memorial of Baltimore Quarterly Meeting Concerning Francis T. King an Elder.

The record of the lives and services of its individual members, constitutes an important part of the history of the Church.

Francis T. King was intimately associated with the work of Baltimore Yearly Meeting for more than forty years, giving to it the enthusiasm of his youth, the strength of his manhood and the mature wisdom of his advancing years. — In much of the work mentioned hereafter he acted as the loyal servant of the Church, carrying out in cooperation with others the concern of the Meeting through its properly organized channels and entering heartily and effectively into all the efforts of the Meeting, whether in his own special line of service or not. He was careful to ask for and move under the express sanction of the Meeting realizing the value and power of the United Church — He was thus able to promote cooperation in the concern of Baltimore Yearly Meeting amongst friends of other yearly meetings, whilst enlarging the sphere of service and usefulness of his own Yearly Meeting — In a truly harmonious Church the rights concern of one member when united with becomes the concern of all and the concern of the Church becomes the concern of each member.

Francis Thompson King was born in Baltimore 2nd Month 25. 1819 — His father was Joseph King Jr. an Englishman who moved to Baltimore in 1816 and was engaged as a shipping merchant until 1831 when he
