Readings.

Our dear friend James Cary Thomas stated that he had for some time had it in his mind to bring before our members ^{and others} some of the essential truths of the Gospel, and asked that permission be granted him to hold several Bible Readings on 1st day evenings beginning on the 17th inst. in place of the regular meetings for worship. After full consideration the meeting fully approved of the concern of our friend & he was set at liberty and encouraged to hold such Bible Readings -

Our 1st day evening meeting is therefore suspended from the 17th inst until further notice.
