

Memorial for J. Carey The Subject of the great loss sustained by the Meeting in the death of our late beloved Friend James Carey, for many years an Elder in this Meeting was brought before us and James C. Thomas, Joseph P. Ellinck, James Carey Jr, Jane E. White and Elizabeth King were appointed a Committee to prepare a suitable Memorial of him and present the same to our next Meeting -

R. B. Warden Robert B. Warden turned the minute gran- led him in South Mouth last by attending North Carolina Yearly Meeting and by engaged in Gospel Service at Blue Ridge Mission and other Subordinate Meetings within the limits of that Yearly Meeting as lay night upon, with returning Minutes from North Carolina Yearly Meeting and White Plains Monthly Meeting of Friends.

Report of Washington City House The following interesting report was recd. from the Committee in Charge of Washington Meeting - The Subject of the purchase of a lot for the erection of a meeting house brought to our attention by the

Report was referred to Edward L. Palmer John C. Thomas and James O. White -

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends - Dear Friends - Meetings have been regularly held since our last report, but for several weeks after the destruction of the J. M. B. building we met in the home of H. V. East - Arlington - and present we are again with the York Co. in their temporary quarters at 1425 New York Ave., but we miss the cheerful parlor so long enjoyed and feel that a dark back room on the second floor, is a very unattractive place to invite our friends or strangers - If we are to hold our children and young people we must find a pleasant place for them - All week meetings, has also been held on fifth day evenings, but with an intermission of some weeks when our hostess (Deborah G. Passmore) was moving to a new home at a greater distance from the line of Cable Cars - In view of such changes, the need of a