

3B

Rules for the Government of the Library.

First. - Books are to be delivered to all applicants free from charge; but if a person should make application who is not a member of the Society of Friends and who is unknown to the Librarian, it is required that he should be introduced by one of the Society.

Second. In case of failure to return a Book within the time for which it was loaned as specified in the printed label attached to it, the borrower is to pay the required fine to the Librarian. No Book shall be considered as returned or be renewed unless handed to the Librarian for examination and entry in the book provided for that purpose.

Third. In case a book shall have been lost or injured, the damage shall be assessed by the Committee having care of the Library, and the amount paid by the borrower before he or she can be again permitted to use the Library.

donations of encourage the consideration of
to governments of overseas
advisors
Williamson
it 1831

7th 1831