

those of our members in unity with us becoming our christian profession. Talebearing and detraction discouraged. No differences amongst us, with the exception alluded to in the first answer.

9th Ans. A concern rests on the minds of friends in relation to the requisition of this query, but way has not yet opened to treat with those who have withdrawn their connection with our society.

Hannah Mitchel, Mary Helso, Mary Robinson and Hannah Talbot were appointed to attend the Quarterly Meeting as our representatives
Then concluded.

At Baltimore Monthly meeting of Women Friends for the Eastern and Western districts (in unity with the ancient Yearly Meetings of Friends) held 9th of 7th month 1829.

By the reports from the Preparative meetings it appears that Rachel Updegraff and Hannah Gwinn were appointed representatives from Baltimore, and Hannah Hopkins and Maria Hosier from Indian Spring who were present except one.

The following minute from the Quarterly meeting was received, and read.

The committee appointed to unite with the Yearly Meetings committee in extending care to the subordinate meetings, produced the following report, which being read, and considered, was approved, and the committee were continued to attend Indian Spring Preparative meeting in the 7th month next. The clerk was directed to furnish Baltimore Monthly meeting, and Indian Spring Preparative Meeting with a copy of the Report, and of this minute. The committee were also directed to continue their attention to the other branches of the Quarterly Meeting, and as way may open, visit them and report their care to next meeting; and Thomas Scott of Guxpowder was now added to that committee.

The committee appointed in the 12th month last to unite with the Yearly Meetings committee in visiting as way may open the subordinate meetings and members, and extending such advice and assistance as might appear.
