

The Committee in Margaret Trimbles case reported they had visited her and that she evidenced no disposition to condemn her deviation they were continued to unite with men friends in preparing a testimony of disownment against her if they find no cause to forbear and produce it to next meeting

The Committee appointed to visit Mary Ann Hopkins not being in readiness to report were continued to the service

The Committee appointed at our last Monthly Meeting to visit Ann Sewel and others produced the following report, which was read and united with; they were continued to join with men friends in preparing testimonies of disownment against them if they see no cause to forbear and produce them to next meeting

We have visited Ann Sewel Ann Wilson and Grace Knox, we have also visited Rachel Mott (omitted last month) neither of those individuals manifested any disposition to make satisfaction; we are therefore of opinion that any further labour with them would not be useful.
