

reappointment of Grace S. Hopkins for Clerk and Hannah Talbot for assistant, which the Meeting approves, they were accordingly continued to the service.

The friends appointed to prepare a certificate for Amiel Reynolds procured one, which was read and approved and directed to be signed by the Clerk of the meeting.

The Committee appointed to visit Lydia Jeffries and others, reported they had visited Lydia Jeffries and Lois Pope and neither of them evidenced any disposition to retain their right of membership with us. The Meeting united in judgement that testimonies of disownment be issued against them, the same friends were continued to join with men friends in preparing them, and produce at next meeting, if they should find no cause to forbear.

Testimonies of disownment signed by the Clerk of the Monthly Meeting against Elizabeth Dixon, Daniel S. Moore and Hannah Atterson, having been received, Elizabeth Peterson and Sarah Webster were appointed to deliver them to the parties and report to next meeting.

Joseph C. Peckham and Hannah Freeman offered their proposals of marriage with each other for the approbation of the Meeting. Elizabeth Handy and Dorothy Hopkins were appointed to make enquiry how far she is clear of similar engagements with others, and report.

John Brooks and Mary Though offered their proposals of marriage with each other for the approbation of friends, Letitia Evans and Hannah Talbot were named to make the necessary enquiry how far she is clear of similar engagements with others, and report to next meeting.

Preparative Meeting informed that Eliza C. Boy has associated herself with those who have separated from communion with the ancient society of friends, she has neglected the attendance of our religious meetings and is in connection with meetings not acknowledged by our Yearly Meeting; thus identifying herself with the seceders and evincing unity with their principles. Margaret Balderson and Grace S. Hopkins are named to write to Durbin Monthly Meeting requesting its assistance in treating with her on behalf of this Meeting.

Then adjourned
