The following report handed by a Committee of men and women friends was read and accepted. Viz.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Women friends for the Eastern and Western Districts.

We have had a full opportunity of conference, and after a free expression of sentiment in relation to the occasion of our appointment, we have renewedly felt the importance of endeavouring to preserve and maintain the precious unity of the Body in all its movements; And believing as we do that our Womens Meeting is not at this time prepared to unite with the prospect of the Preparative Meeting of Ministers and Elders, as contained in a Minute recently received from that Meeting; It is therefore our united
