Taken from the minutes of the meeting aforesaid and signed on behalf thereof by

Harriet Williamson has so far departed from our principles as to join another Religious Society. She has been visited on account thereof but is not prepared to acknowledge her deviation. Therefore we disown her from membership with us notwithstanding if by attention to the pointings of Truth in her own mind she shall become convinced that our principles are in accordance with the precepts of the Gospel the way will be open for her return.

Signed by direction and on behalf of Baltimore
