

eration and temperance on all occasions.

5th Ans. The necessities of the poor and the circumstances of those who may appear likely to require aid are inspected and relieved none amongst requiring assistance in their employment and no children to be educated.

6th Ans. Most Friends maintain a faithful testimony against a winking minister. We know of no breach of testimony in regard to Oath, Military service, clandestine trade, prize goods and lotteries.

7th Ans. Friends appear to be careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage to be just in their dealing and punctual in complying with their engagements.

8th Ans. Friends are careful as far as appears to bear a testimony against Slavery. Those of the African race under Friends' care are comfortably provided for and instructed in useful learning.

9th Ans. Care is taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially and to exhort to those who will not be reclaimed the spirit of meekness and love before they are disowned.

10th Ans. Elizabeth Roberson an esteemed elder departed this life the 31st of 3rd mo in the 82nd year of her age.

Thomas Scott an elder of Unipowder Pulp Meeting departed this life the 8th day of 2nd mo last in the 82nd year of his age.

Elizabeth Scott an elder of the same meeting departed this life the 20th day of 8th mo last in the 84th year of her age.

Eleventh Ans. None.

Twelfth Ans. Most Friends are careful as far as practicable to place their children for tuition under the charge of suitable teachers in memberships with us.

The committee appointed to collect for the Yearly Meeting stock report that they have received the sum of $26.25 which is directed to be forwarded to the Yearly Meeting.

The committee in the case of Jane Justice is continued.

The following proposition was brought in from the men's meeting and united with and Hannah Lattitt, Mary W. Brooks, Ann S. Matthews, Phoebe C. Thomas, Lacey E. King and Margaret Cheston were appointed to unite with a similar committee of men Friends in carrying it into effect.

At Bala Monthly Meeting for the E. S. M. District the Committee having charge of Friends' Library have conferred together and are united in the belief that its usefulness would be promoted by removing it to our meeting house and placing it under the care of a joint Committee of Men and Women Friends; This Committee to be at liberty to draw on the Treasurer of the Monthly