

Social enjoyment at the Monthly Meetings. The Mothers' Meeting has continued to instruct, entertain, and assist in material ways women from the vicinity, the attendance averaging 45 to 50. The teaching given them in these meetings has an influence in many homes.

The work for Young men carried on in the name of Young Men's Christian League has comprised social, physical and educational features. The gymnasium has been used by the boys, as well as by the young men and Young women, and during the summer, Athletic grounds will be used as the young men have leisure. A class in the commercial course of study was taught by a competent instructor, and their regular attendance secured to them good results.

The Loight st. building is used in many other ways, the meeting there being very active in work of all kinds. We are not in a position to report upon this, however, but would suggest that the Monthly Meeting might find such a report very interesting.

John R. Cary - President.

Meeting then adjourned -

Katharine M. Brewitt.

Clerk.

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends for the Eastern and Western Districts held in joint session Seventh month 8th. 1897.

The representatives to the Quarterly Meeting reported they all attended - Ella Cowman, one of the representatives, read a very interesting paper relative to the exercises during the various Meetings; which also embraced an account of a conference held previously, in connection with the Quarterly Meeting.

A written report from Pendersville Preparative Meeting, held at Pendersville, Adams Co. Pa. Sixth mo. 23rd. 1897. was read: it stated no representative would be present at this meeting. The information contained in the report that the hour of holding First day morning Meeting for worship had been changed from 10.30 to 10 A. M. was approved; said change embracing the
