

business beyond their ability to manage; they are just in their dealings, and are punctual in complying with their engagements.

10th. Ans. When necessary to deal with offenders, care is taken to deal with them seasonably and impartially, in the spirit of meekness and love.

11th. Ans. Lindley D. Clark. minister.
Elizabeth B. Emmott. minister.
Elizabeth B. Emmott. removed.
Elizabeth R. Hopkins. deceased.

12th. Ans. None.

The following minute was adopted, and our clerk was directed to sign a copy of it, which should be furnished to Lindley D. Clark.

This meeting was informed that our friend Lindley D. Clark of Washington D.C. during a proposed visit within the limits of some of the Yearly Meetings of this country, has consented to solicit subscriptions for a new Meeting House in Washington as opportunity may offer.

This is to certify that Lindley D. Clark is a minister of this meeting in unity and good esteem amongst us: that he is a member of the committee of Baltimore Yearly Meeting to solicit funds for a new meeting house in Washington D.C., and that he has been requested by this committee to present this object as way may open. We commend him to your Christian fellowship, and his message to your prayerful consideration.

Then concluded

Mary E. Cary

clerk for the day.

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends for the Eastern and Western Districts held in joint session Tenth month, seventh, 1897.

The women's clerk being absent, Mary E. Cary was appointed clerk for the day.

Our dear friend James Carey Thomas informed this meeting that he felt that it would be right for him to again attend in the love of the Gospel Dublin and London