

of the Quarterly Meeting that the Monthly Meetings raise their respective quotas of the sum directed to be raised by the Yearly Meeting.

The committee appointed to bring forward the name of a suitable Friend to serve on the committee on Indian Missions in the place of our late friend William C. Coale reported, they had conferred together and were united in proposing the name of Jacob Lindley, which was acceptable to this meeting, and he was accordingly appointed on such committee.

The committee appointed in 11th. month last relative to the concern of the Quarterly Meeting in regard to our members reading the Discipline made the following satisfactory report. The committee was released. The report is as follows.

The committee appointed to arrange for one or more meetings at which Informal Talks upon the Discipline should be given report that circulars were sent to most of the members of the meeting informing them of the desire of the meeting to have members conversant with the Discipline, and offering to loan copies to such as had none, and giving notice that a meeting would be held on 1st. month. 19th. at which Informal Talks would be given by Allen C. Thomas on "The origin and growth of the Discipline", and by Richard H. Thomas on "The need and uses of the Discipline".

It was found advisable to postpone this meeting until 2nd mo. 9th. when a large number of our members attended and enjoyed the discourses very much. It is not thought necessary to have any more such meetings at present.
