

Meeting House, which have been in use for 18 years are now worn out, and need replacing by new ones. The cost of these will have to be met by special subscriptions from our members. Estimates of cost are being prepared.

We call the attention of the Monthly Meeting to the vacancy in our board, occasioned by the death of Joseph P. Elliott.

On behalf of the Trustees.

Francis White.

John C. Thomas, Secretary.

The committee appointed to attend the marriage of Evelyn Pope to Jere Williams Lord reported that they were present at such marriage, that the same was duly solemnized at the time and place appointed, that it was conducted in an orderly manner, and that the certificate was duly signed and witnessed, but that it has not yet been lodged with the Recorder. The committee was continued to attend to this and report to our next Meeting.

The committee appointed to arrange for holding meetings on the first First-day, evening in each month during the rest of the season as way may open for it, made the following report, which was satisfactory. The committee was released.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting.

The committee appointed to arrange for the holding of special addresses or Bible Readings on the first First-day evening in each month as way might open for it, report that the following arrangements were carried out.

In 3rd. month an address on "The Lord's Supper and communion in daily Life," by R. H. Thomas.

In 4th. month A Bible Reading on "The Christian's hope in the life to come" by Anna B. Thomas.

In 6th. month. Several addresses on "Christian work in the summer" by John B. Cary, Alice Brooks and others.

At these meetings the attendance was very much larger than would have been expected had the usual meeting been held. Even the last, which was the smallest, was twice the size of the evening meeting at this season.

Considerable interest was awakened on the subjects discussed, and we trust that blessing
