

tending these meetings have been helped, not only temporally but spiritually.

The Y. M. C. League has continued its work with marked success this year. The membership has increased and a Junior department in connection with the gymnasium has been formed with an attendance of 25 boys.

The social, physical and educational work of the League has been carefully looked after.

The Girls' Fellowship Club also added a Junior department to its work, and the educational and cooking classes were continued with good results.

There is much Home Mission work done by members of Leight street meeting, which is looked after by their own meeting, and not by this association

The meeting then went into separate session. The 1st, 2nd, and 10th queries were read, together with the answers from Benderville Preparative Meeting, and the following answers adopted as representing the condition of this Meeting, which the Clerk was directed to sign on our behalf, and forward to the evening Quarterly meeting, to attend which as our representatives we have appointed.

Ellen A. Nicholson, Elizabeth J. Hopkins.
Rachel Brooks. S. Isabella White, and Mary E. T. Mackenzie.

1st. ans. All our meetings for worship and discipline have been duly held; greater punctuality on the part of some desirable; unbecoming behaviour avoided.

2nd. ans. We believe Friends have love towards each other becoming our Christian profession. We do not know of any tale-bearing, detraction or differences amongst us.

10th. ans. No known offenders.

The committee appointed in Fourth month last to propose the names of Friends for appointment as additional Elders, reported that they had conferred together, and were united in proposing James C. Winderhill, James Carey Jr, Mary McCullough,
