

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends for the Eastern and Western Districts, held in joint session Seventh month 6th. 1899.

A report was received from Bendersville Preparative Meeting.

The representatives to our late Quarterly Meeting, reported they all attended, except one, for whose absence a reason was given.

The committee appointed relative to the application of Hilda B. Hess for membership with Friends, reported that they had a satisfactory interview with her, and were united in recommending that her application be granted. This meeting united with the judgment of the committee, and Hilda B. Hess was received as a member of the religious Society of Friends, and her name was directed to be entered upon our list of members. Our clerks were directed to inform her of this action.

The following report was received from the Association for Christian Work of the Meeting, which was satisfactory.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends.

During the past year the work of the Association has been carried on in very much the same manner as heretofore. We have been enabled to continue the various lines of work, both at Federal Hill and Cutaw street that claimed our interest in the past. In some of our undertakings a need of more workers has been felt, but under the circumstances we can but feel thankful as we look back over the year's work, and believe that much good has been accomplished, and not a few have been helped by our efforts.

We have felt the necessity of a more aggressive work among our younger people at Cutaw st., and next year we hope to be able to accomplish more along that line.

As heretofore, the work has been supported entirely by voluntary contributions, and owing to the hearty and generous support of our members, we are glad to report, that we will be able to close the year without deficit.

The sociables given once a month at Cutaw st. we believe have been the means of interesting quite a number of our younger people in the Meeting, who heretofore have not shown as much
