

and they were accordingly appointed on such committees.

The Committee on Minor Details of the Meeting House made the following report which was satisfactory to the Meeting, and the committee was continued.

The Committee on Minor Details have continued to give necessary attention to minor matters connected with the comfort and convenience of members and attenders of our Meeting and Bible School, as also of those attending Yearly Meeting.

We have expended during the year the sum of Twenty eight and  $\frac{12}{100}$  dollars (\$28.<sup>12</sup>) which has been refunded to us by the Treasurer of the Monthly Meeting. We attach to our report an itemized Memorandum of these expenditures.

By direction and on behalf of the Committee
John Nicholson.

The bill of items is filed with the Treasurer of the Meeting.

Richard H. Thomas who was appointed at our last Meeting to represent the Society of Friends on the Committee having charge of the Special Meetings for humiliation and prayer in the different sections of the city as a result of the visit of Campbell Morgan, reported that the Meetings were held in six different parts of the city, including the one at our Meeting House in South Baltimore, and were helpful in meeting the needs desired. They were large and impressive, and it is thought that they were likely to encourage unity and co-operation among the different denominations. A number of our members united in some of these Meetings.

The following application for membership with Friends was received from the Women's Oursers, and Mary McCullough and Elizabeth J. Hopkins were appointed relative thereto, and were directed to report to our next Monthly Meeting.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends.

Dear Friends,

I hereby make application to be received into membership with Friends having accepted the doctrines of the Christian
