

Francis J. King, from Francis White Executor of Eliza H. Greenshaw deceased, that he was prepared to pay the legacy of $5000. bequeathed by her to Baltimore Monthly Meeting; and we directed our President to sign release for said legacy and appoint Joseph Sterefield our Attorney to acknowledge said release.

The President was authorized to invest the amount of said legacy in Pittsburgh Crownsville R.R. First Mortgage Bonds if they can be obtained at a fair price Then adjourned

Attest Thomas -
Clerk

At a called meeting of the Trustees held 12th mo 22nd 1875, present F. Y. King, James Carey, W. S. Thomas, Jesse Lyson and A. C. Thomas. The President stated that owing to some delay in receiving the bequest of Eliza H. Greenshaw. he was unable to buy the Pitts. & Crown. 1st Mortgage Bonds at a fair price, they having advanced in the meantime - he was accordingly authorized to loan the amount to the Balt. & Ohio R.R. Co. for 4 months on their note as a temporary arrangement. Then adjourned.

Attest Thomas -
Clerk

At a regular meeting of the Trustees held 1st mo. 6th 1876, present all the Trustees.
No business appearing, the meeting adjourned

Attest Thomas -
Clerk

At a called meeting of the Trustees
held 6th mo 8th 1876, present F. Y. King, Jas. Carey, W. S. Thomas and A. C. Thomas. The President F. Y. King stated that the loan to the Balt. & Ohio R.R. Co. authorized by the Trustees on 12th mo 22nd 1875 had been paid - The interest on the note amounting to the