

Nov. 19-1925

The Finance Committee met November 19-1925.

Eight members were present.

It was decided to have a congregational supper December 3rd. Mary Goodhue Cary accepted the responsibility for the invitations.

Margaret T. Carey, who had charge of the circular letter to be sent to the entire membership, read draft of same, which, after slight changes, was approved. It was decided that the circular letter and reply card be enclosed with supper invitation, and that circular letter without invitation be sent to all non-resident members.

Mary E. Cary consented to take charge of envelopes, and to turn over to Jas. B. Horisberg the names and numbers of those who wish to use them.

Margaret T. Carey was to get persons to serve as host or hostess at the supper tables and see that pledge cards were ready. Person at head of each table would be responsible for securing the pledges at his table.

Speakers at supper:

Miles White, Jr., to speak from viewpoint of Five Years Meeting

John R. Cary, " " " " Yearly Meeting

Margaret T. Carey, " " " " Local Meeting

The Chairman stated she expected to have the young people to a tea in an effort to enthuse them on the question of finances.

It was decided to have the Passion Play (movie) following supper talk. The Chairman and Lewis C. Moon were to attend to mailing out the invitations.
