HOMWOOD FRIENDS MEETING

3107 North Charles Street

Baltimore, Md.

Office of the Executive Secretary

November 23, 1931.

To Members of Baltimore Monthly Meeting,

Dear Friends:

The Finance Committee presents to you a statement of the year's needs. Following our usual custom, we ask all our members and attenders to meet in the library of the meeting house on Sunday, November 29, at the close of meeting, for the purpose of pledging their financial support to the work of the meeting for the coming year.

The committee has reduced the budget to the lowest possible figure. We appeal to each one to subscribe to the limit of ability to pay. We must have your support to raise the following amounts:

1. Current Expenses, Homewood. Interest on mortgage, Quarterly Meeting and Yearly Meeting Quotas. See enclosed budget. $4700

2. Reduction of Mortgage. Reduction of Mortgage means reduction of future expense. If we raise $3000 this year the Mortgage may be cancelled. $3000

3. Evangelistic and Educational Work. This includes salaries of Christian Workers in various meetings, salary of the executive secretary, travelling expenses of visiting ministers, assistance in education of Young Friends. Baltimore's part is $3500

4. United Work of Five Year's Meeting. This includes mission work, home and foreign, and work of all Boards of the Five Year's Meeting. The part of our Yearly Meeting is $5500. Baltimore Monthly Meeting's part is $3000

Total to raise 14,200.

We are enclosing pledge cards. If you cannot be present November 29, please sign cards and return to the Chairman. Payments for all funds should be made to the Monthly Meeting Treasurer, G. Cheston Carey, 119 East Lombard St., Baltimore, Md.

Signed on behalf of Committee,

Ells Cowman
Chairman of Finance Comm.
