

4 Rules for the Government of the Library.

First- Books are to be delivered to all applicants free from charge, but if a person should make application who is not a member of the Society of Friends and who is unknown to the Librarian it is required that he should be introduced by one of the Society.

Second- In case of failure to return a book within the time for which it was loaned as specified in the printed label attached to it, the borrower is to pay the required fine to the Librarian.

No book shall be considered as returned or be renewed unless handed to the Librarian for examination and entry in the Book provided for the purpose.

Third- In case a book shall have been lost or injured the damage shall be assessed by the committee having care of the Library, and the amount paid by the borrower before he or she can be again permitted to use the Library.

Which was read and united with by the meeting and Joseph Townsend Daniel Cobb
Hugh Balderson Joseph King Jr. and George Williamson Elisha N Brown were appointed to the general charge thereof, to apply the money now on hand and any additional sums that may be received to the purchase of such books as they may judge proper, and report of their care herein to the meeting annually, or as occasion may require.

Signed William Procter Clerk of B.M.M.

5
At a meeting of Friends Library Committee held Baltimore 9th month 13th 1831. Present Joseph Townsend Hugh Balderson, George Williamson Joseph King Jr. Elisha N Brown and Daniel Cobb. The latter was appointed Secretary and Elisha N Brown Treasurer.

It was proposed that the following Books should be purchased to be added to the Library, vizt.

William Penn, work,	Pity, promised 1.3.4.5.6.7.8. parts
Isaac Pennington, d.	Extracts from Fenelon by Rendall
Robert Barclay d.	Vol 2 ^d Frisney family library
Ellwood, sacred History	3 ^d & 4 th Vol. Friend
Knox, Christian Philosophy	Hebers travel,
Addison, Evidences	d' life in India
Hoyland, Epitome	Dr Clark, travel,
Dicks Theology	Clapperton, d.
Tellamy on religion,	Life of Col. Gardiner
H Moore, practical piety	Seneca's morals,
and Life of St. Paul	Crofton, Poems, 2 Vol
Littleton, Conversion of St Paul	Thompsons, Seasons,
Jennings internal Evidences,	Stewarts, Visit to faith seas.

which being approved, Joseph Townsend and George Williamson were appointed to procure them and authorised to call on the Treasurer for the necessary funds. They were also requested to produce at next meeting an Essay of Rules for the government, of the proceedings of this committee.

Then adjourned. Daniel Cobb, Secy-