

26
This work, trusting indeed that their labor has not been in vain, and that the good seed planted will not be utterly choked but will bring forth some little fruit to the praise and glory of Him, in whose strength, and under whose guidance we humbly desire to be directed in this work.

Ann Scholfield I Green M Read and H Lytle were appointed to visit next month.

Then adjourned

H Lytle Secy

At a Meeting of Friends Association for visiting the Penitentiary held 3rd mo 1855 a number of friends present.

The committee for visiting last month report a faithful attendance and have felt much satisfaction from the quiet and orderly deportment of the women, tho they learn from the Matron that a few of them have in a measure relapsed into their old habits. Nothing objectionable however has appeared during their visits. Some of the committee have several times invited their friends to accompany them and have found great advantage from the large number of teachers as it gives opportunity for private advice and instruction to those who may need it.

27

M Chester, H A Tyson, I Green and H Lytle were named as the visitors for next month.

Then adjourned

H Lytle Secy

At a meeting of Friends Association for visiting the Penitentiary held 11th mo 11th 9 Friends present.

The secretary informed that there had been no meeting of the Association since 3rd mo last and the following report prepared for the meeting which should have been held in 6th mo last never having been presented was read at this time.

Report - 6th mo 7th - 1855

Several of the visiting committee have been prevented by indisposition from attending to their appointments since our last meeting, and there has been some difficulty in procuring substitutes. This is probably owing to the omission of the regular meeting last month. Several times there have been but two in