

12
remain your unworthy suffering servant
Anne Allegood

And must this body die. And must these active limbs of mine This well wrought frame decay Lie mouldering in the clay Dear Teachers while I write these lines I feel so overwhelmed with gratitude to ward you that don't know how to express myself to you but I hope the Lord will reward you for all your kindness.

A letter from Rose Herbert showing astonishing improvement in writing was exhibited and the following letter also read.
Harriet Smith Baltimore

Dear Lady I take this opportunity to inform you that I am truly thankful for care you have taken with us, and my teaching has been a great benefit to me and I think with little more teaching I shall be able to write for my self. I cried unto the Lord with my voice, with my voice unto the Lord did I make my supplications, I poured out my complaint before him. I shewed before him my trouble. He knows all our secret sins you must not think hard of this writing for it is the best that I can do. I wish I could do it better, I would with all my heart and if it please the Lord I will go home and be a good girl, see if that don't become me more than going a stray. No more at present but I remain your affectionate scholar.

13

Harriet and Anne are coloured women both of whom could read with great fluency where Friends first went amongst them - and have great facility in committing to memory portions of scripture. Their term Expires during the coming summer.

The Secretary was requested on behalf of the Association to acknowledge the reception of German & English tracts from the Depository and to return the sincere thanks of the association to John G Morris for his kindness in having ordered them for their use.

Julia Wilson Ruth A Cobb Mary A Muler and Sarah Savage were appointed to visit for the next month.

Adjourned to meet at H Talbotts on Fifth day 3rd mo - 11

At a monthly meeting ^{of Friends Association} for visiting the penitentiary held 3mo 11. Present 11 members.

The report of the committee for last month was read, and is as follows.

Several of the visiting committee appointed for this month were unable to attend, but their places were regularly supplied with one exception. They were glatified to find that the interest and desire for acquiring knowledge rather increases than abates with