

A regular meeting of the Association for Christian Work was held in the lower room of the Meeting House, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 8th, 1905, at eight o'clock.

After a Scriptural reading and the omission of the minutes, the lecturer for the evening was introduced, L. Hollingsworth Wood, of New York, who gave a most interesting illustrated talk on "Japan and Manchuria."

The meeting was adjourned by the president.

Cassandra C. Platto,

Secretary.

A regular meeting of the Association for Christian Work was held in the lower room of the Meeting House on Wednesday, March 8th, 1905, at eight o'clock.

The President read a portion of Scripture, and suggested the omission of the minutes, which suggestion was approved by the meeting.

Stephen S. Myrick, formerly a teacher of the Chinese in a school at Singapore, gave an illustrated lecture on "The Chinese and their Customs".

The meeting then adjourned.

Cassandra C. Platto,

Secretary.

A regular meeting of the Association for Christian Work was held April 12th, 1905.

As the President was absent, A. Morris Carey presided, and opened the meeting by Scripture reading. The Secretary being absent, Elizabeth S. Thomas was appointed Secretary for the evening.

Miles White, chairman of the Committee on Records, read a report. It was directed by the meeting that the report be typewritten, and added to the other records.

The following were named to act as a nominating committee to report at the next meeting: A. Morris Carey; Francis A. White, John C. Thomas, Anna King Carey; and Juliana R. Winslow.

The meeting then listened to a very interesting and instructive lecture on the "Star Fish", delivered by Dr. Caswell Grave, of the Johns Hopkins University. After which the meeting was adjourned.

Elizabeth S. Thomas,

Secretary, pro. tem.
