Representatives to the monthly Meeting attended to their appointment

All the Quires have been read, and the following answers adopted and Directed to be forwarded to the monthly Meeting 1st

All our meetings for Worship and discipline have been regularly attended: those on first day mornings by most of our members in unity with us Afternoon and week day meetings at times small & unbecoming behaviour therein guarded against and the hour of Meeting mostly observed 2nd

As far as appears Love subsists amongst us becoming our Christian Profession: late baring and detraction discouraged and we know of no differences amongst us those of our members who have not joined in the separation,

Many friends are concerned to educate their Children and those under their Care agreeably to the Regulations of this Query; to guard them against reading pernicious Books and from the corrupt conversation of the world, also to encourage them frequently to read the Holy scriptures but an Increase of care in these respects we believe would be profitable

4th

Our Testimony against the unnecessary use of Spirituous Liquors is maintained and as far as appears friends are careful to avoid taverns and places of dissipation moderation and Temperance observed by many friends 5th

Care is taken to inspect the necessities of the poor and to afford relief when Requested we know of no friends children requiring aid in their education
