The first, second, and ninth queries with their answers were read in this meeting, and the following answers adopted to be forwarded to the Monthly Meeting, to attend which we appoint Anne Sault, and Anna Adams as our Representatives.

1st answer. First-day morning meetings are generally well attended. — Those held in the afternoon are frequently small. Meetings for worship held in the middle of the week, also meetings for discipline are sometimes small.
Unbecoming behaviour, appears to be avoided and the hour of meeting nearly observed.

2^d answer.

Some Friends are concerned to maintain love toward each other becoming our Christian profession. — False hearing and detraction, measurably discouraged. — When differences arise care is used to end them.

9th answer.

Endeavours are used to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially, and to convince to those who will not be reclaimed the Spirit of meekness and love before they are disowned.
