We have had a full opportunity of conference and after a free expression of sentiments in relation to the accession of our appointment we have renewedly felt the importance of endeavouring to preserve & maintain the previous unity of the body in all its movements. And believing as we do that our Women's Meeting is not at this time prepared to unite with the proposal of the Preparative Meeting of Ministers & Elders as contained in a Minute raised from the Meeting it is therefore our united judgment and we are free to propose as a safe step for the Meeting to take that it now discontinue the further consideration of the proposition - which we submit to the Meeting - signed Joseph Townsend
