

Ensuing Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight, to attend which as our representatives we have appointed, James Cary, Thomas R. Matthews, Susan R. Matthews and Mary McCullough, who were directed to report to our next meeting.

Ans. 1st We are diligent in our attendance on meetings for worship and discipline and we encourage our families to that religious duty.

Ans 2nd. We believe that in the exercise of our gifts we are careful to wait for and to act under the ability that God giveth and that we are sound in the doctrine of the Christian Religion.

Ans. 3rd We are in unity one with another and with the meetings to which we belong, manifesting a religious concern for the advancement of truth and the support of the discipline.

The 1st Unanversed Query was read and seriously considered and we were reminded of the importance of living in a spirit of prayer. without which we cannot in the hurry and stress of daily life, maintain our service in the name of the Lord in the Church and in the world.

And then concluded,

Rich. Henry Thomas
Clerk.

At Baltimore Preparative Meeting on Ministry and Oversight held Third Mo. 30th, 1893, the Representatives to our last Quarterly Meeting reported that they attended, except one, who was prevented by indisposition.

A minute was received and read from Baltimore Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight, held in Baltimore, First month 7th 1893, expressing full unity with the judgment of Baltimore Monthly Meeting that a gift in the Ministry has been committed to our Friend, A. Morris Cary. Our Clerk was directed to add the name of A. Morris Cary to the list of the members of this meeting as a Minister of the Gospel.
