John C. Thomas who visited Bendersville the 16th of 2d month stated that while the meetings were small, there was a good degree of spiritual life, and there were encouraging evidences of spiritual gifts being developed.

Mary M. Cullum, Adonias Carey, Anna B. Thomas and J. James Hunter were appointed representatives to our Quarterly meeting on Ministry and Oversight to be held at Bendersville.

The subject of changing the time for holding this meeting was considered.

The clerk was directed to confer with members of the meeting & if way opened suggest a suitable time at our next meeting.

Adonias Carey Clerk.

At Baltimore Local meeting on Ministry and Oversight held 5/30th 1902 After a time of waiting on the Lord for his blessing the Minutes of our last meeting were read, and approved. The Representatives to the Quarterly meeting on Ministry and Oversight held at Bendersville reported that all but one attended for whose absence a satisfactory reason was given. John C. Thomas stated on behalf of the Committee on Elders that they had attended to their appointment. The Committee was accordingly released. This meeting was informed by the Clerk of Baltimore Monthly Meeting that the following Elders had been appointed.

John. Nicholson
Benjamin Peltorne
James Carey Jr
Mary B. Nicholson
Mary M. Cullum
