At Baltimore Local Meeting on Ministry and Oversight held 1/1. 1903. 14 Members were present.

After opportunity for prayer the minutes of our last meeting were read in part. The representatives to our late Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight reported that only one of their number attended owing partly to sickness and partly to very inclement weather.

In accordance with provision of our discipline the meeting then proceeded to consider the condition of the several congregations under our care.

At Gettaw Street Meetings have been well attended, and the Ministry has seemed to be acceptable and adapted to the needs of those who attend.
Special attention was called to the fact that the Ministry from ^{some} the body of the meeting had been lately very acceptable & helpful.

Friends were ~~continued against~~ encouraged to come to our meetings for worship in the spirit of worship, and although it was felt to be very important that a spirit of cordiality and kindness be shown to each other and especially to strangers attending our meetings.
Our members were ^{encouraged to} exercise care to avoid
