

by many to meet the needs of these our members and Attenders, though it seems difficult to attain as definite results from our Meetings as we should like. The First day Evening Meeting continues small. The Fifth day Morning Meeting has been well attended and is much prized by our members, who turn aside for a little while from business and secular matters to wait on the Lord. The Minutes of this Meeting, ^{for the past four or five weeks} have for the past four or five weeks held each 7th day a Meeting for prayer & study of the Scriptures, which has been very helpful.

Emphasis was laid upon the importance of teaching our members the real vital truths of Christianity as understood by Friends & the practicality of depending upon God for guidance, & spiritual strength. In accordance with the recommendation of the Executive & Church Extension Committee two congregational meetings for prayer were held at the Close on First day Morning Meeting.

At Legis Street Meeting there seems to be an increasing attendance at the meetings, especially on First day Evening. The Ministry is felt to be suited to the needs of the congregation, and the interest in the work of the Church here is gratifying. Legis Street Friends have found 4th day Evening the most satisfactory time for holding a meeting for prayer. This meeting is regularly held and is very informal. The spiritual condition of the meeting appears to be good and service are developing and coming forward in the work.

Quakeria No Report

Marion M. Pape, Anna B. Thomas, A. M. Carey and John C. Thomas were appointed as representatives to our Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight to be held at Hopewell and were directed to report to our next meeting in writing.