

At Baltimore local meeting on Ministry and Oversight held 5/28/1903 Thirteen Members were present. After a time of prayer the minutes of our last meeting were read. The representatives of our last Quarterly Meeting reported as follows:

"In the reports from the Monthly Meetings read at the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight held at Hopewell 4/18/1903 there was an Exultant note of Encouragement in regard to their Spiritual Condition, and expressed desire for a closer walk with God in daily life. The question, what are you doing to forward the work of the ^{the church among your} young people, and have your efforts in this direction brought satisfactory results, was ordered to be sent the Monthly Meetings on Ministry and Oversight Hannah M. Pope, Anna B. Thomas Adkins Carey, and John C. Thomas attended the Quarterly Meeting, as representatives. (John C. Thomas was not able to be present at the meeting, but was present at the Conference and the Meetings on 1st day).

The following Communication was received from Baltimore Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight:

"The Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight is concerned to know what your Meeting is doing to bring forward ^{your} young people in the work of the Church, and with what success. Please consider and report to next Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight."

Signed Samuel P. Neave Clerk.

After consideration the following answer was adopted to be forwarded to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight. = Exultant It

"During the past year or two there has been an increased number of young people in attendance at our meetings for worship and in view of this a concern has arisen among us to interest and ^{these young people} draw us to the work of the Meeting, and make them feel at home with us. The Association for Christian Work, the Organized Home Mission work of the Meeting offers ample opportunity for religious work to those willing to engage in such
