

Meeting, unless they have a good reason for being absent. There are few homes in which there is regular family worship.

The Conduct of the members in their relation to one another and to the world is generally satisfactory, and most of them are engaged in Bible School, Christian Endeavor, Visiting the Sick, or some other form of Christian work - such as, the "Womens Helping Hand," and the "Womens Christian Temperance Union"

Dendersville

The attendance at our Meetings has been small, yet we do not yield to discouragement on this account.

In view of the foregoing full report it was concluded to waive the usual verbal reports from the several congregations covering the same points, and required by Paragraph 2 of the same Section of the Discipline, and to submit a summary of the information therein contained to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight.

The 5th Query was read and the following Answer directed to be forwarded to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight:

There has been one change in the Membership of this meeting by the death of Albertine Wise, an Overseer in Light Street Congregation.

We appoint Richard H. Thomas, Anna S. Thomas, Margaret H. Elliott and John C. Thomas our representatives to the Quarterly Meeting, and direct them to report to our next meeting.

In view of the long and irregular intervals between our meetings, it was concluded to request the Clerk to give members timely notice in future of the date when Meeting will occur.

The meeting then concluded.

John Nicholson
Clerk for the day
