John C. Thomas
Edward H. Palmer
Margaret W. Elliott Clorissa Davis were appointed as representatives to our Eastern Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Overseas and were directed to report to our next meeting.

The importance as well as the privilege of drawing our members and our meetings for worship in prayer to Our Father in Heaven were emphasized.
Friends were urged to remember their home meetings when away from the city & pray for them.

Then concluded

A. M. M. Clerk.

At Pastoral Local meeting on Ministry and Concepts held 9/29/1904.
After a time of prayer the Minutes of our last meeting were read and approved.
The representatives reported that they all attended except one, for whose absence good reason was given.
The Meeting then proceeded to consider the different congregations under its care.

Light Street

The general spiritual condition of the Meeting at Light Street seems to be good.
The attendance at the morning meeting has been small, but the evening meetings continue to be well attended. There are no evidences of new spiritual life gifts being bestowed, and there is no new work now under consideration.
It is expected that the The Tabernacle meetings at The Friendly Inn will be held this winter as usual.
