

Care is taken to Encourage the same.

The meetings held during the absence of the Ministers from the City were interesting and profitable.

No special work or new lines of service have been engaged in.

There are but few of the Members who have family devotion. There are but few families in which the heads of them are Members of the Meeting.

There seems to have been a lack of full sympathy & love for one another in the part of some of the members. This has been made a matter of prayer & these members have been laboured with.

While of course no official report was received from Beadwood, it is of interest to note that

One Friend Steele holds with his family a meeting in the morning at his home.

John L. Thomas & Anna King Cady were appointed representatives to our Evening Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight, and were directed to report to our next meeting.

The Queries were read and considered.
