

II-24-09 in presenting our apprehension of the gospel to the world. We believe there is at this time a desire on the part of many persons for a presentation of the Gospel which is absolutely free from non-essentials, and bears throughout the stamp of reality; for a faith which brings a man into direct contact with his God, and makes those who accept it men and women whom it is good to know and safe to trust. We shall be very thankful if the Quarterly Meeting can send us any advice as to the way in which we can make our message clear and convincing, and reach those to whom it will be attractive.
