

III-22-1911 for worship from time to time. The matter is recommended to the earnest collection of the individual members of this meeting.

Representations

The following report was adopted to be forwarded to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight, and James Barry Jr, Anna B. Thomas, Edward L. Palmer and Margaret T. Barry were appointed Representations to the same.

Report

There does not seem to be much change in the spiritual life of our meetings from month to month, nor does the attendance of our meetings vary greatly. Many of our members are active in interdenominational work, and seem to be doing the Master's will in ministering to the spiritual and other needs of the community, although their efforts do not seem to directly affect our growth as an organization.

We have given some consideration to the question whether our methods are the best for the time in which we live. If we need revision of method for the sake of efficiency we should be able to bring it about. If our methods are right but the Spirit is lacking we should face this condition frankly. It may be that we lack faith in our own position and that greater confidence and courage in presenting it to the world would result in more persons being drawn into our meetings.

Then adjourned
