Report

The effort to organize the work at Light St. in a more effective way, which was referred to in our last report, has been continued and two meetings of the congregation have been held. The Committee in charge of the plan are endeavoring to enlist all the members and regular attenders in some work for the meeting. Special topics have been presented by arrangement at the recent First day evening meetings at Light St. with an increase of interest and attendance.

The work of the meeting, both at Cutaw St. and at Light St. has been given serious consideration by a committee of the Monthly Meeting as a result of an awakened sense of responsibility on the part of a number of our members, and we trust that the influence of this will be felt in the near future.
