The Quarterly Meeting was conducted on a new plan. after the regular business was transacted

This new form of meeting was felt to be helpful & stimulating. The application for membership from William A. Evening Meetings. The value of the First Day evening meetings to our membership and attendance was dwelt upon and a prayerful consideration by the members of this meeting was urged that the spiritual life of our meetings might be energized and made more dynamic.

The meetings during second mo. will be under the care of A. Oscar Mason and if the interest continues the Committee having the program in charge will arrange for speakers for third mo. A communication from the Yearly Meeting meeting of Ministry and Oversight to this meeting was directed to be read at such time as James Carey Jr. considered suitable.
