

Chairman of Committee. A concern was also expressed that Chairmen of Committees should take pains to confer with the other members of the Committee before taking action and avoid monopolizing the business. On behalf of the Representatives."

John C. Thomas.

Monthly report of Eugenia H. Parker reported the conditions at Eutaw Street Meeting, viz: - attendance, ^{at meetings} harmony among the membership, character of the Ministry, &c. were to her mind as far as she was able to judge satisfactory.

John C. Thomas spoke on behalf of Light Street Congregation. The summer out of door meetings had been well attended and considerable interest shown and a deeper interest seems to continue since the Meetings are held indoors. New developments in gifts had been noticed but an awakened interest had taken place through a group of young men visiting a number of the Country Meetings during the summer.

Weektown Meeting.

The Meeting held at Weektown in which such a large number of students took part, (127) was mentioned to emphasize the fact that there seems to be an underlying current of religious earnestness which promises well for the future of the Meetings. A Quaker Round Table is to be started after Yearly Meeting at Light Street, under the leadership of a number of Friends.
