

Meetings in Charge made the following report and asked to be released - the report was accepted and the request granted.

- (1) The interest in the Fellowship Union and the Dorcas Society were mentioned as sources of help to the Women of the Meeting.
 A. Oscar Leoon advocated the need of first-day evening meetings to stimulate the spiritual conditions. The Meeting, after careful consideration, concurred with this opinion and a Committee to have the care of said meetings was appointed. A. Oscar Leoon, John R. Cary, Mary E. Morris, Francis H. White and Margaret B. Van Holten.

Report to
2. Meeting

Report of Baltimore Local Meeting to Baltimore Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight

Held at Washington, D.C. First two 8th 1916.

The lines of work, after the summer recess, have been started with interest in the Entaw Street Meetings.

The attendance at the first day morning meetings is excellent but for some reason that of Fifth-day is small.

The interest in the Bible school is maintained and the Men's Bible Class under the teaching of Albert Russell has increased somewhat in attendance.

The first-day evening meetings held out of doors as Light Street during the summer were well attended and the interest maintained since the meetings have been held indoors is encouraging. The Bible School is much hindered by lack of teachers.

A Quaker Round Table is held and is well attended; a different leader presents the subject each week.

The Men's Bible Class has been reduced in numbers through the starting of four other classes but the interest is kept up.

The residence of Albert Russell and his family among us this winter is most helpful and inspiring and his ministry is acceptable to the Meeting.

While we realize activities do not necessarily indicate spiritual life yet the willingness with which some of our younger
