The Committee having the care of the first-day evening Meetings reported arrangements had been made for the first Meeting to be held 2nd Mo. 2nd when J. Douglas Adams would be present. Meetings to be held during the remaining evenings of the month were under consideration but the plans were not definitely perfected.

The Bible School is not in as good condition as to numbers as could be desired.

To the Pastoral Committee of Baltimore Monthly Meeting. The following is my report for the condition of Light Street Meeting. The spiritual condition, not in a position to state. The life of the congregation is practically at a standstill. Attendance of meeting for public worship - morning meetings average ten. Evening meetings average forty-five.

2. Meeting
Report.

The following report was made by L. Oscar Moon for the Representatives at the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight.

To Baltimore Local Meeting on Ministry and Oversight. Dear Friends: - The persons whose names appear before my own on the list of representatives to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight were unable to be present at the Meeting.

It was a most interesting meeting but there were only four reports from the Local Meetings out of a possible eight. (Counting the meetings where the Ministry and Oversight is unorganized).

The reports presented did not reveal anything of very far-reaching significance and hardly seem to me to show as much activity as is usual at this time of the year.

The subject of "What the Bible Teacher on Witnessing" was presented by John C. Thomas and lead to a lively discussion in which various phases of the subject were helpfully mentioned. Patience, Hopewell, and Elkhorn were not represented at the Meeting.

For the Representatives
L. Oscar Moon.
