The attendance at all of the meetings was good especially those in January and we believe the results fully justified the trouble and expense incurred by them.

The Committee was informally continued to arrange for evening meetings during the summer of this year, but the way did not seem to open for such meetings and the Committee, therefore, feeling that their work has been completed, would suggest its discontinuance.

Respectfully submitted,

John R. Carey
Chairman.

Baltimore Local Meeting on Ministry and Oversight.

The Committee appointed at the meeting May 20, 1914 to arrange such religious meetings in the fall of the year as seemed best, reported that the way did not seem open to hold meetings at the time named. The Committee, however, arranged for the following Meetings on the Sunday evenings in January:

Jan. 3- Rayner W. Kelsey, Haverford College, Pa.
Jan. 10-Thos. E. Jones, Gen. Sec. Young Friends Activities
Jan. 17-Rayner W. Kelsey,
Jan. 24-Vincent D. Nicholson, Richmond, Ind.
Jan. 31-Robert L. Stinkin, China (on furlough)

These meetings were held and we believe gave satisfaction.

The meetings were continued through February and March, those in February being in charge of L. Oscar Moon, and in March of the following:-

March 7th- Wm. H. Morris
March 14th, John R. Cary
March 21st- A. Morris Carey
March 28th- Thomas E. Jones, Sec. Young Peoples Activities
