

Pastoral Work

It was suggested that some one should be set aside ^{to do} definite Pastoral work. A Committee to arrange for special supervision was formed. Margaret T. Carey, John C. Thomas, A. Morris Carey, and John R. Carey. No further business - meeting adjourned.

A. Viola Koenig } Clerks

Third mo
20th 1918

The Local meeting on Ministry + Oversight, was held 2nd mo. 20th, 1918. Eight members were present. After a season of prayer the minutes were read and with slight corrections, approved.

H. J. Taylor
membership

As per appointment by this meeting, Margaret T. Carey reported that she had visited Hannah J. Taylor, but she was not yet ready for the transfer of her membership.

Report on Inakerian
Week.

John R. Carey reported that the meetings planned for in the observance of Inakerian Week were held. Elbert Russell gave an inspiring address, followed by others who presented different phases of the work of the five years meeting, from the viewpoint of the Local meeting, and of the Home and Foreign Mission Boards.

The meeting was well attended by our own members and Park Ave. Friends.

Pastoral visiting

Change in 2nd Monday month

The subject of Pastoral visiting was discussed, and in view of the peculiar need at this time for the friendly sympathetic touch, the members of the Committee were urged to give early attention to the visiting.

The time of holding the meeting on Ministry and Oversight, after fully general discussion it was agreed to hold it on the 2nd Monday of the month at 5-6 p.m.

The following were appointed on representatives to the ensuing Quarterly Meeting: Francis C. Ancombe, John C. Thomas, Margaret T. Carey, Margaret A. Glover. Then adjourned.

A. Viola Koenig } Clerks

4th mo.
15th 1918

At Baltimore Local meeting on Ministry and Oversight held 4th mo. 15th 1918, 7 members were present. After a season of prayer the minutes were read and approved.

Representatives to the Quarterly Meeting reported all were in attendance except one.

Francis C. Ancombe and Francis A. White were appointed to report to our next meeting - on the spiritual condition and life of the congregations at Light St.