Com. on List of young members & attenders
The Committee (Ruth P. Hunter, G. Chester Carey & Donald B. Van Hollen) to prepare a list of the young people - members and attenders, with a view to gathering such as may be, into closer fellowship with us - was not ready to report and was continued.

Anna B. Thomas reported all but one of our representatives attended Quarterly Meeting. The sessions were of unusual interest.

With a view to increasing attendance, at the meetings for worship, and strengthening the spiritual life and power of the membership - the suggestion was made that ministers or others might, from time to time be invited to worship with us.

Com. on Visiting ministers or others
The suggestion was approved and Richard J. White, Elizabeth S. Thomas and Donald B. Van Hollen were appointed to attend to this service, and the Recording Clerk was directed to notify them of their appointment.

After a time of prayer the meeting adjourned.

Report to Quarterly Meeting on Ministry & Oversight
At an adjourned meeting of Pastoral Com. held Oct 9, the following draft of report to the Quarterly Meeting was read - To Ball's Quarterly Mtg on Min & Oversight to be held at Ashlon, 10th Mo 11, 1919.

Many of the activities of the meeting were closed during the summer months, but with a forward look for larger and more effective work for the winter - plans are under way for a Congregational Rally for the purpose of enlisting the co-operation of the entire membership in the present work of the meeting, and in developing new phases of social work which may be undertaken. The keen disappointment of not securing Wilbur K. Thomas has given way and we are facing the winter's work with a spirit of optimism and courage.

Representatives
Richard J. White given an opportunity to express itself for or against a proposal to begin building the new meeting house in the near future. For information of the activities the past week - see Report of 4th Mo. This was approved and directed to be sent to Clerk of the Quarterly Meeting on M. & O. to which we appoint *
A. Viola Horisberg, Recd. Clerk.
