work of the meeting. Attention was called to the Pastoral visiting which brought out a suggestion of the need of some one to co-ordinate and direct the work of the meeting. A Committee, consisting of James Carey Jr., Virginia H. Parker, Richard T. White and Lucy M. Thurston was appointed to confer with the Evangelistic Committee, to see if such person can be secured.

Margaret T. Carey urged us to faithfulness to our work, not to expect others to do that which we are called upon to do, but each in his place, attending faithfully and with his might to whatever he does, with this attitude and spirit we may count on Heavenly Father's help and blessing. After prayer the meeting to meet at the call of the Clerk.

After prayer Margaret Housberg was asked to express what she felt was wise to do for this Com to do during the winter.

John H. Parker suggested visiting those who never come & find if they have any interest in the meeting & if not drop them. This was not concurred in by the meeting. The point was brought out there should be no cleavage between the young & old, they should all work together. It was dwelt on that it was of surpassing importance to have visiting done systematically & that next week end series of meetings might be tried. One by one we must look after people and make them feel they are missed when absent. Preaching does not make meeting permanently larger. Preaching does help if the right kind & visiting " " " " " but our own spiritual condition must be deepened if we do the right kind of preaching and visiting. Suggested and agreed to that Mrs. Housberg keep the membership in mind and drop a line or tell different members to visit certain ones that need special
