

attention or spiritual help. If we are in the right attitude towards work of the church we will be able to help the one we serve. Make our meeting like our meeting because they like us. The younger people look to the older people for inspiration & help. At the suggestion of James Carey it was decided that each one present send in a list of five people whom ^{they} will take special care of, in any way we can by visiting or inviting them to the house after these lists are in the Chairman & Sec will divide the remaining members & attenders who need special care & apportion them to the members. The Sec was asked to write or see those not present & ask them for their lists.

The minutes were read & approved. The meeting for the young people was held and was successful.

The Com. appointed to confer with the Evangelistic Com. reported they had met with the Chairman and discussed the situation and were willing to cooperate where called upon. The Com. was continued. The following ^{associated members} made application to become ^{active} members:

Margaret Holmes Price and Roberta G. Glover (jr) Margaret J. Carey having visited them the Pastoral Com. approved & they were directed to be forwarded to the Monthly Meeting with our approval. After a time of prayer the meeting adjourned Margaret J. Carey representing

December 15, 1920

At a meeting of the Pastoral Committee and meeting on Ministry and Oversight held Dec. 15-1920 fourteen members were present. After a season of prayer the minutes were read and with corrections approved.

A note from Richard J. Wyle was read stating that Wilbur R. Thomas expected to write us on Sunday Jan. 30.

The meeting appointed A. Viola Horisberg, John C. Thomas, Margaret A. Glover and John R. Carey representatives to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight to be held in Washington Jan. 8-1921.

The matter of holding a series of meetings jointly with Park Ave. Friends - January 21st to 23rd inclusive was generally discussed. The plan was approved and the following named persons were appointed to work out details and secure speakers: James Carey Jr., J. James Bunley, J. Hollingsworth Parker, Margaret J. Carey, Elizabeth S. Thomas, A. Viola Horisberg and Lucy M. Threlkeld.

Margaret J. Carey presented to the meeting a suggestion made by Hollingsworth Wood and concurred by others, that sometime in the near future Friends hold a Disarmament Conference and try to direct the thought of the country into a spirit of goodwill as against militarism and that Baltimore would be a good place to hold such Conference. It was thought it would be a good thing to do if the Five Years Meeting would project it. After a devotional pause. Meeting adjourned.
