

with renewed impulse - with energy and enthusiasm preparatory to taking up the work in our new meeting house.

It was decided to invite Dr. L. W. McCreary to meet with the Pastoral Committee in the early fall to present some methods for community service.

After prayer meeting adjourned.

A. Viola Horstberg.
Rec. Clerk.

9th mo 27th 1921

At a meeting of the Pastoral Com. held 9/27 11 members were present and also Lewis Moon ~~to~~ whose had been suggested for the position of Baltimore Yearly Meeting Sec.

After a time of prayer Margaret T. Carey was appointed recording clerk in the absence of A. Viola Horstberg. The minutes were read & approved. The clerk asked if the meeting would wish to invite Mr. McCreary to be present at our next meeting & discuss methods for community service. This was approved.

The recording clerk suggested that as she was to be absent from the city for two months someone should be appointed in her place. The meeting decided just to appoint a clerk for the day.

A suggested report to be forwarded to the monthly meeting was read & approved also one to the quarterly meeting on M. & O. which with some changes was approved & directed to be forwarded to the quarterly meeting on M. & O. The following were appointed Representatives to the quarterly meeting on M. & O. to be held at Ashtown: James Carey Jr. - Margaret B. Van Housen, Francis A. White, Mary E. Carey.

Francis A. White for his wife said a number had written her asking that A. Viola Horstberg be recognized as a minister. The matter was cordially received and it was decided to consider the matter at our next meeting.

John R. Carey then presented Lewis C. Moon who was asked to give a little account of his life. He was a birth right member of North Carolina Meeting, worked in the cotton mills.
