

He went to school & then to college in Wilmington after which he went to Hartford Theological Seminary finishing 1919. While at Wilmington he felt a desire to become a missionary to Africa. In 1919 he went with Mrs. Moon to Africa where he stayed a year & a day. Mrs. Moon could not stand the elevation so they were sent home. Since that time he has been working for the 5 yrs meeting Exec. Board. He is a recorded minister in Wilmington. While at college there was pastor in a meeting & also served a congregational church while at Hartford. For a summer he was in a little meeting called Allen's Neck in New England. Lewis Moon then left the room & friends expressed their views. The decision was they liked him and it was left to the Exec. Com. of the Exec. Com. to make arrangements with him.

10/12/1921 The Pastoral Com. met at Light St. Meeting 10/12/1921 in a special meeting asking a number of interested members of the Light St. Congregation to be present to talk over the possibilities for the two congregations to work together this fall.

The Bible School was discussed and the desire expressed that when the move was made to the Homewood Meeting House the Light St. Bible School should be

After discussing methods of getting the attendance & interest of the Light St. Congregation it was decided to form teams of one Light St. friend & one Elmwood St. friend to visit every member on one first day.

James Hunter, John C. Thomas and L. M. Eakem, Thurston & Margaret T. Carey were appointed to apportion the members to the various teams.

When the visit was prayed an invitation was then given to the morning & evening meetings on first day and to the monthly meetings and approaching of early meetings.

After a time of prayer the meeting adjourned.

Margaret T. Carey rec. Clerk for day.

11/15/1921. At the Pastoral Com. held at 1004 Cathedral St. 10 members were present.

After a time of prayer Margaret T. Carey read the minutes for the meeting in 9th mo & also of the special meeting with Light St. Friends in 10th mo. They were approved.

The clerk then brought up the question of acknowledging A. Viola Hornsberg's gift in the ministry. The question was earnestly considered and the meeting was united in acknowledging her gift in the ministry and the clerk was directed to forward the judgment of this meeting to the quarterly meeting on ministry and oversight for its action. The clerk reported that the Light
